Teepee _Floor lamp

Inspired by Native American conical tents, the Teepee cordless, rechargeable battery lamp by Zafferano is a rechargeable LED table lamp with a clean, playful design. Thanks to its generous size and bold, playful design, it can also be placed on the floor, becoming a luminous presence that brings style and personality to the space. Its painted aluminum body, available in white or black, pairs with a polycarbonate diffuser to deliver soft, even lighting. With an IP65 protection rating, Teepee is perfect for both indoor and outdoor use. The touch control lets you switch the lamp on and off, dim the light, and choose from three color temperatures (2200K, 2700K, 3000K). The rechargeable and replaceable battery offers up to 10 hours of autonomy at full brightness and recharges in about 5 hours using the included USB-C cable. The USB chargeris sold separately. Teepee is the perfect cordless lamp for anyone looking to add a pop of light, color, and character to their living room, terrace, or garden.
